

MALALAI JOYA

“THE MOST COURAGEOUS WOMAN IN AFGHANISTAN”

Malalai Joya, ousted from the Afghan parliament for her persistent criticism of the government, is the author of a new book A Woman Among Warlords: The extraordinary story of an Afghan who dared to speak out.

Don't miss this chance to hear Malalai Joya as she tells a story of oppression, resistance, assassination attempts, political vision and hope for the future.

SUNDAY
NOVEMBER 15, 2 PM

UVIC, DAVID LAM AUDITORIUM
MACLAURIN BLDG

Admission by Donation

For more information
email: info@vicpeace.ca

SPONSORS:

Barnard-Boecker Centre Foundation, Coalition Against Israeli Apartheid-Victoria, Council of Canadians-Victoria, International Socialists, UVic Faculty of Humanities, UVic Graduate Students' Society, UVic Social Justice Studies Program, UVic Women's Centre, Victoria Peace Coalition, Women In Black, UVSS Armed with Understanding

ENDORSED BY: Greater Victoria Teachers' Association
Social Justice Committee, UVic Students Against War

CANADIAN TOUR SPONSORED BY:

The Canadian Peace Alliance, Simon & Schuster Canada,
Voice of Women-Canada, rabble.ca

